ACADEMIC CUSTOMS AND DRESS

The origins of many customs of the academic world are to be traced to the Middle Ages, particularly the eleventh and twelfth centuries when the first European universities — Bologna, Paris and Oxford — were founded.

In their original organization, the universities were like medieval corporations or guilds. In fact the word “universitas” originally referred to any kind of corporation. The students at the universities were equated to guild apprentices, and so the completion of this apprenticeship was celebrated by a “commencement” marking the beginning of their careers.

In the twelfth century, everyone wore gowns. The social and economic status of an individual was shown by the extra features, such as fur trimming, on the gowns. Cloaks with hoods were worn over gowns for protection in bad weather. Degrees began to be awarded in the thirteenth century, and different styles of gowns and different colors came to represent the various degrees and disciplines.

Over the centuries the styles of dress changed, and by the seventeenth century, the wearing of gowns by men had virtually ceased. But the universities, particularly those in Britain, continued to be conservative and strict in the matter of academic customs and dress. At Oxford, for instance, students could be fined for cutting class or not taking notes, and candidates for master's degrees had to swear that they owned a gown and would always wear it at the proper times!

The first American universities were founded on English models. However, the wearing of academic dress was not universal and ceased during the Civil War. The custom was revived in the late nineteenth century, and in 1895 an academic costume code was adopted which, with modifications, is still used.

Most American universities have the standard black gown with the hood serving to distinguish the individual institutions. Some American and European universities have adopted or preserved more distinctive gowns. There are three styles of gowns, distinguished mainly by the sleeves: the bachelor's gown, with long, pointed sleeves; the master's, with a squared sleeve, cut so the forearm is free; the doctor's, with bell-shaped sleeves with three velvet bands.

The hood is the really distinguishing feature of modern gowns, indicating the degree (the width of the edging band), the discipline (the color of the band) and the college or university (the colors of the lining). Today's graduates have hoods edged in white (B.A., M.A.L.S.), gold (B.S., B.L.S.) or drab (M.B.A.). Many faculty members will have blue edging indicating the Ph.D. degree. The faculty will be wearing hoods representing many distinguished institutions of higher education, e.g., navy blue and orange for the University of Virginia, orange and maroon for Virginia Polytechnic Institute and State University, cardinal and blue for the University of Pennsylvania.

ACADEMIC HONORS AND SPECIAL AWARDS

Academic achievement is recognized at Commencement through a variety of honors and awards. Other awards were presented at the Convocation ceremony held on Friday, May 6. In addition, most academic departments sponsor chapters of honor societies which recognize student achievement in specific disciplines.

ACADEMIC DISTINCTION

The college recognizes the academic achievement of graduating seniors earning the degree of Bachelor of Arts or Bachelor of Science through the awards of Summa Cum Laude, Magna Cum Laude, and Cum Laude, based solely on the student's grade point average at Mary Washington College. To graduate with Academic Distinction a student must earn at least 60 Mary Washington College credits on which grade points can be computed. The cumulative grade point average to be attained for each award is as follows:

Summa Cum Laude	3.75 or higher
Magna Cum Laude	3.50-3.74
Cum Laude	3.25-3.49

The academic achievement of seniors graduating with the degree of Bachelor of Liberal Studies who have earned a qualifying grade point average in at least 30 Mary Washington College credits is recognized as follows:

With Highest Distinction	3.75 or higher
With Distinction	3.30-3.74

FINAL HONORS

Final Honors are awarded at Commencement to students who achieved a grade point average of 3.75 or higher in their last 56 credits earned at Mary Washington College, at least 44 of which must be graded credits.

DEPARTMENTAL HONORS

Students may earn graduation with honors in their major subjects. Each department establishes its own requirements for honors projects or theses. All departments require that a student intending to undertake an honors project have a specified minimum grade point average in the major subject and a minimum grade point average for all work taken at Mary Washington College.

FACULTY EMERITI

Faculty members who have served Mary Washington College for at least 15 years and who have attained the rank of professor or associate professor are eligible upon retirement to be considered for emeritus status. This honor, by action of the Board of Visitors, is bestowed this year upon three persons.

JANET FRASER WISHNER Professor of Philosophy

Janet F. Wishner came to the College 25 years ago as assistant professor of philosophy — just five years after completing her undergraduate work at the University of Leeds and earning a master's degree at Bedford College, University of London. She became an associate professor in 1981, after the completion of her doctorate at the University of Georgia. Dr. Wishner has been a professor of philosophy since 1989, and for four years, was chair of the Department of Classics, Philosophy and Religion. She has served with distinction on numerous committees, and has worked with the B.L.S. and M.A.L.S. Programs and the Honor Council.

A. RAY MERCHANT Executive Vice President; Professor of Education

A. Ray Merchant retired from Mary Washington College in November 1993 after 34 years. He arrived at the College in 1959 as registrar and instructor of education and moved steadily upwards to department chair, to director of admissions, to vice president for continuing education and to executive vice president, a post he held from 1980 until his retirement. He has served on many important College committees, including the search committees for two academic deans, and chaired the committee that recommended Dr. William M. Anderson, Jr. for president. His exemplary service was recognized in 1988 when he received the College's Washington Medal and in June of 1993 when he was made an honorary alumnus of the College.

IN MEMORIAM SUSAN J. HANNA

Distinguished Professor of English

Susan J. Hanna was a member of the Mary Washington College faculty from 1968 until her untimely death in April 1994. During her 26-year career she achieved distinction, not only in the classroom as a consummate teacher of English, but also in a variety of faculty leadership positions, including chair of the Department of English, Linguistics and Speech. By nature ebullient, she won the admiration of students and colleagues alike by virtue of her palpable love of learning and her manifest disdain for pretentiousness. As an ardent and effective advocate for those issues in which she so passionately believed, Dr. Hanna also contributed significantly to the welfare of the larger community beyond the campus. Her worthy deeds, both of scholarship and humanity, will long remain in the memory of all those whose lives she touched throughout the Mary Washington community.

COMMENCEMENT SPEAKER

DR. ARNOLD R. OLIVER

Dr. Arnold R. Oliver assumed the chancellorship of the Virginia Community College System on January 1, 1992. Prior to going to Richmond, Dr. Oliver served as president of Danville Community College for five years, having been the dean of instruction and student development at that institution from 1980-86. He began his career with the VCCS in 1972 as an assistant division chair of the Humanities Division at Northern Virginia Community College's Annandale Campus, moving on in 1974 to serve as a division chair in Communications and Human Studies at the Manassas Campus. He served as acting provost at NVCC's Manassas Campus in 1978-79.

Dr. Oliver has served on a number of VCCS task forces on subjects including strategic planning, resource distribution, semester conversion and curriculum review, and was appointed to the Virginia Economic Bridge Advisory Board. Dr. Oliver has also been active in many professional organizations and community groups.

He received a doctorate in higher education from Southern Illinois University in 1972, a master's degree in English from the University of Idaho in 1969, and a bachelor's degree from St. Michael's College in Vermont in 1967.

Dr. Oliver and his wife, Pat, have two children. They are living in the restored section of Church Hill in Richmond.

THE DENNY & DUNIPACE PIPE BAND

Having won top awards in Scotland, Canada and the United States, the Denny & Dunipace Pipe Band has been one of America's highest ranking championship bands for the past 20 years. It was formed in 1970 by members of the United States Air Force Pipe Band in an effort to encourage young pipers and drummers in the Washington, D.C., area to discover and nourish their Celtic musical roots.

ALMA MATER

All hail, dear Alma Mater,
We sing our praise to you.
High on Marye's Hilltop
You stand forever true;
Born in truth and honor
You ever more shall be,
The model of our future years
And all eternity.

Whene'er we have to leave you
We never will forget,
The lessons you have taught us,
And all the friends we've met;
And we your sons and daughters
Will hold your name on high,
So here's to Mary Washington;
Our love will never die.
